

CREATING A SAFE ENVIRONMENT FOR ALL IN RUGBY

HILLHEAD JORDANHILL RUGBY CODES OF CONDUCT

PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Do not force an unwilling youngster to participate.
- Never ridicule or shout at your child, or any other, for making a mistake or losing.
- Encourage a child always to play by the laws of the sport.
- Teach young people that honest effort is as important as victory so that the result of each contest is accepted without undue disappointment.
- Turn defeat into victory by helping young people work towards skill improvement and good sportsmanship.
- Remember that young people learn best by example.
- Do not publicly question the judgement or honesty of match officials.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from all levels of youth sport.
- Recognise the value and importance of volunteer coaches and officials. They give their time and resources to provide recreational activities for young people

PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Play for enjoyment, not just to please your parents or coach.
- Abide by the laws of the sport.
- Never argue with the decisions of match officials - let your captain or coach ask any necessary questions.
- Control your temper, no foul language.
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team, your team's performance will benefit and so will your own.
- Be a good sport - applaud all good performance, whether by your team or by the opponent.
- Treat all participants as you yourself would like to be treated.
- Don't interfere with, bully or take advantage of any other player.
- Remember that the aim of sport is to have fun, improve your skills and feel good.
- At the end of play, applaud and thank your opponents and the match officials. The forming of narrow and aggressive player tunnels should not take place.
- Win with humility, lose with dignity.

SUPPORTERS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Remember that young people are taking part in organised sport, which is intended to be played for enjoyment. They are not professional or international gladiators.
- Be on your best behaviour. Do not use profane language or harass players, coaches or officials.
- Acknowledge good performance and FAIR PLAY by opponents as well as by your own team.
- Show respect for opponents and officials. Without them, there would be no competition.
- Condemn the use of violence in all forms.
- Verbal abuse of players or officials is not acceptable in any shape or form.

COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

- Remember that young people need a coach they can respect - be generous with your praise when it is deserved and set a good example.
- Be reasonable in your demands on the young player's time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Remember that they have other interests and demands on their time.
- Teach young players that the laws of the sport are mutual agreements which no one should evade or break.
- Ensure that all your charges participate - average and below average participants need and deserve fair time and attention.
- Remember that young people are involved for fun and enjoyment and that winning is only part of it - never ridicule or shout at participants for making mistakes or losing it.
- Develop team respect for the ability of opponents, as well as for the judgement of match officials and opposing coaches.
- Follow the advice of a doctor in determining when an injured performer is ready to participate again.
- Never criticise the officials during or after the event in front of players or spectators - always thank officials and if they have made any decisions which require clarification discuss that privately with them afterwards.
- Make a personal commitment to keep yourself informed on sound coaching principles and the principles of growth and development of young people.
- Encourage young people to develop basic skills and FAIRPLAY and avoid over-specialisation during their formative years.
- Insist on fair and disciplined play - do not tolerate foul play, cheating, violence or bad language..
